SAT-7 UK Volunteer Code

SAT-7 UK is very grateful for your willingness to serve God through a voluntary role with SAT-7 UK. In our duty of care for you and to the ministry we ask that all our volunteers agree to the SAT-7 UK volunteer code:

- Agree to and uphold the Statement of Faith, values and positive image of SAT-7 UK in all you do and say
- Receive SAT-7 UK mailings to help you keep up-to-date with developments in SAT-7's ministry
- Follow the SAT-7 UK security guidelines whenever you speak or write on behalf of SAT-7 UK
- Inform the SAT-7 UK office of all activities being undertaken on behalf of SAT-7 UK and accept the oversight of SAT-7 UK staff
- Respect the requests of the group to which you are speaking, including good timekeeping in relation to arrival and the duration of any talk
- Pass on all monies you receive on behalf of SAT-7 UK directly to SAT-7 UK
- Ensure all equipment used is maintained and is safe and fit for purpose.
- Observe health and safety precautions when carrying and setting up equipment and publicity materials to avoid injury to yourselves or to others
- Treat as confidential any personal information you hear or see about SAT-7 UK supporters and do not pass on to any person outside SAT-7 UK
- SAT-7 UK's privacy notice includes how we handle, store and use personal data. This can be found at www.sat7uk.org/privacy. Please ensure that you follow this policy when handling supporter's personal data.
- Handle all personal data you receive sensitively and in line with current Data Protection rules (data protection training will be provided).

DECLARATION

In my role as a volunteer of SAT-7 UK, I agree to follow this code and to notify a SAT-7 UK representative or the CEO if at any time I no longer feel able to agree to this code.
